Sources of Information

Percentage of respondents from the migrant worker community who use different sources for COVID-19 information:

- Social Media: [Bar chart data]
- Whatsapp: [Bar chart data]
- Digital Media: [Bar chart data]
- Friends/Family: [Bar chart data]
- TV: [Bar chart data]
- Health Practitioners: [Bar chart data]
- Radio: [Bar chart data]
- Religious Sources: [Bar chart data]
- Newspaper: [Bar chart data]

Trust in Information Sources

Percentages of respondents from the migrant worker community who trust different sources for information on COVID-19:

- Friends or Family: [Bar chart data]
- Health Workers: [Bar chart data]
- Local Organizations: [Bar chart data]
- Social Media: [Bar chart data]
- Local Media Outlets: [Bar chart data]
- International Organizations: [Bar chart data]
- Religious Leaders: [Bar chart data]
- Community Leaders: [Bar chart data]
- Municipalities: [Bar chart data]
- Government Officials: [Bar chart data]

Factors Influencing Trust in Sources of Information

- If the information is spreading widely in my community: [Bar chart data]
- If the information is coming from my country: [Bar chart data]
- Hearing the same information from several sources: [Bar chart data]
- If the source is my friends or family: [Bar chart data]
- If the source is from outside of Lebanon such as an...: [Bar chart data]
- Official information from the government: [Bar chart data]
- If the information is detailed and clear: [Bar chart data]
- If the source is a religious leader: [Bar chart data]
- If the source is a community leader: [Bar chart data]

Percentage of respondents from the migrant community who feel confident in differentiating between accurate and false information:

- Yes: 43%
- No: 57%

Awareness and Susceptibility to Misinformation

Percentage of respondents from the migrant community that feel confident in differentiating between accurate and false information:

- Yes: 43%
- No: 57%

Percentage of respondents from the migrant worker community preferred methods of receiving information:

- WhatsApp: [Bar chart data]
- Newscast on TV: [Bar chart data]
- Social Media: [Bar chart data]

Percentage of respondents from the migrant worker community categorizing statements as true or rumor:

- The vaccine is dangerous to health: [Bar chart data]
- COVID-19 is a hoax: [Bar chart data]
- The vaccine has not yet been proved effective: [Bar chart data]
- The COVID-19 spreads easier indoors: [Bar chart data]